

BESPOKE HARDWOOD BAYS

Before ▲
After ▼▶

The Bay Window is the traditional English design to increase floor space and daylight within a room and at the same time enhance the external building facade. Our Bays are constructed to the highest professional standards using traditional skills and structural timbers.

They are available in a variety of shapes including the multi-angled, the right-angled and the delightful Oriel Bay, (above).

